

Organisation

Individual Members belong to Circles or Groups of friends.

Circles are geographically grouped into Areas or Provinces.

Provinces form a part of an independent, self-governing National Association, currently the Great Britain National Association, The Australian National Association, or the International Development Committee.

The “ethos” of what it means to be a Catenian and management of all our financial investments are the property of The Catenian Association Limited, a company limited by guarantee in England and Wales, registration number 00894193. All Catenians are members of this company but their personal liability is limited to £1 sterling.

The Company’s Head Office is located in Coventry, England.

Our affiliated companies, Catena Trustees Ltd, The Catenian Bursary Fund Ltd and Catena Publications Ltd are independent and have no relationship with The Catenian Association Ltd.
